

Holiday Fun Week 2016

We've had a fantastic week of bible based fun; worship, crafts, cooking and sports.

This year we learnt about some of the ups and downs in the final week of Jesus' life on earth and thought about the way in which there are ups and downs in our daily lives.

Life is just like a roller coaster; we need to thank God for the good times and rely on him in the bad times.

On Monday we looked at Palm Sunday; Jesus's triumphant entry into Jerusalem and we arrived at our theme park – it was busy, noisy and bustling and we were very excited.

On Tuesday we learnt about Jesus clearing the Temple and we thought about how we need behave at our theme Park: No queue jumping, no littering, being respectful – no barging and shoving, no loutish behaviour ...

On Wednesday we studied The Last Supper and thought about what we can do to help us remember our day at the park... mementos, taking photos on rides, sharing food together or buying gifts to remind us of the day.

Thursday brought us to the lowest dip with Jesus's crucifixion and we learnt that some of the rides in our park are scary or dark but there's always a light at the end of the tunnel!

And finally on Friday we learnt about Jesus's resurrection and Easter Day and we realised that the best things in our theme park are often the things we aren't expecting and that highs follow lows.

We hope to see you all next year for Holiday Fun Week 2017: Desert Detectives, 24th- 28th July 2017.
